

Sometimes Opportunity doesn't knock, it opens up in an email.

Partnership – “A Buck starts here.”

part · ner · ship (pärt'nər ship) n. an association of two or more partners in a business relationship.

Have you ever noticed how things seem to progress better when people are working together? The whole job just seems more workable when you have someone to help you.

At MACS we want to help you save money, and give you and your company as much exposure and influence as we can.

Let's start with a basic business principle. “Economy can, in and of itself, be a source of great wealth.” We all know that as Ben Franklin said, “A penny saved is a penny earned.”

MACS is offering you an opportunity to have your Educators' Convention booth paid for. All we ask is for you to do the most natural marketing there is—tell a friend about us and have them join us as an exhibitor.

Most of the businessmen that exhibit at our convention attend other trade shows. You network and meet many people that may not know about us, but with a word of encouragement from you, they would be willing to join us at our convention. We'll give you money off your exhibiting fees for each new exhibitor (hasn't exhibited with us in the last two years) that you get to join us.

Here is how you benefit:

1. One New exhibitor = 50% off your booth price.
2. Two New exhibitors = free booth.
3. Three New exhibitors = free booth plus $150.00 worth of free advertising in the convention book.
4. Four New exhibitors = free booth space plus $150.00 worth of advertising in convention book and $150.00 worth of free advertising on our MACS website Home Page.

MACS will partner with you to promote your business.

- You will be offered free advertising space at www.macshome.org
- You will receive a personalized referral letter that you can use for mailings or promotion materials.
- You will be mentioned in the MACS Matters publication.

The Fine Print

1. Partnership earnings will be issued as a credit toward the next year's convention. No cash or checks will be issued.
2. Partnership earnings will be based on exhibitors who actually show up at the convention.
3. Partnership does not cover the cost of electricity. We still have to pay that to the convention site.
4. Partnership advertising credits can be applied to a full page or half page.
5. When seeking exhibitors we ask that you keep in mind that we are a Christian organization and we ask that you invite exhibitors and advertisers that will uphold and honor our convictions of conscience.
6. MACS reserves the right to refuse or dismiss anyone we feel is not upholding the spirit of cooperation with our philosophy.
7. Partnership agreement applies to the conventions that are not GLCEC (2022, 2025, 2028 etc)

Education is what you get when you read the fine print. Experience is what you get when you don't.
