

MICHIGAN ASSOCIATION OF CHRISTIAN SCHOOLS

ATHLETICS HANDBOOK

I. DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

We believe the Bible, both the Old and New Testaments, was verbally inspired by God, and is inerrant and is our only rule in matters of faith and practice. We believe in creation, not evolution; man was created by the direct act of God and in the image of God; we believe life begins at conception where the only sexes (male and female) are divinely determined. We believe Adam and Eve, in yielding to the temptation of Satan, became fallen creatures. We believe all men are born in sin. We believe in the incarnation, the virgin birth, and the deity of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We believe in the vicarious and substitutionary atonement for the sins of mankind by the shedding of His blood on the cross. We believe in the resurrection of His body from the tomb, His ascension to Heaven, and He is now our Advocate. We believe He is personally coming again. We believe in His power to save men from sin. We believe in the necessity of the new birth, and this new birth is through the regeneration of the Holy Spirit. We believe salvation is by grace through faith, plus nothing minus nothing, in the atoning blood of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We believe God ordained marriage and family as the foundational institution of society. We further believe the only biblically sanctioned marriage is the public, monogamous union of one man and one woman is intended for a lifetime and sexual activity outside of marriage is sinful and detrimental to society. We believe in the Biblical doctrine of ecclesiastical separation, and therefore believe churches and Christian schools shall not be members of or in agreement with organizations or movements which deny the fundamental doctrines found in this statement or with ecumenicalism which minimizes doctrinal distinctives. We further believe in the completed revelation of Scripture which allows neither for direct revelation from God today, nor for continuation of temporary New Testament sign gifts, such as visions, dreams, prophecies, healings or speaking in tongues, such as is practiced in the Charismatic movement.

We believe this doctrinal statement/statement of faith is basic for Christian fellowship. All born-again men and women who sincerely accept it and are separated from the world of apostasy and sin can, and should, live together in peace, and it is their Christian duty to promote harmony among the believers.

B. MACS Athletics Mission Statement

1. We act with integrity.
 - a. In each personal interaction and in each ministry decision, we ensure that honesty, transparency, and clear communication are paramount. We will lead by example and are genuine in our interactions with one another and with our MACS family members. We encourage a sense of ownership and accountability.
2. We always seek to improve.
 - a. We seek to improve our ministry with our member schools and families. The people we interact with are treated with respect. We listen, are humble, and seek to lead by example in order to improve the lives of those around us and to cultivate an environment where everyone can be pleased to say they are part of MACS.
3. We believe in balance.
 - a. We believe balance supports wellbeing and success in ministry with our members. An enjoyable environment can also be a productive and prosperous one with the right balance. We believe in a strong work ethic while not taking ourselves too seriously; finding the harmony between innovation and tradition; and respecting the quality of life outside the workplace.
4. We strive to provide support and positivity.
 - a. We support each other and foster a culture of positivity. We are driven to create a culture of opportunity and inclusion where everyone can achieve their aspirations and goals through our thoughtful and solution-based decisions. We prioritize each other, lift up each other, and practice empathy and live with gratitude in order to foster Christian culture.
5. We are passionate.
 - a. We are passionate about the quality of the products and experiences we provide each day. We respect the role everyone plays in creating a superior experience for each MACS member family. We love and are grateful to share our appreciation for our culture with our member schools. Our standards are high so that the respect we have for our ministry and our people is evident in all we do.

Our mission is to exceed the expectations of every member, every day.
